Future of the Site

- In future Mycareer.uz is a company recruiter which serves both companies and unemployed people to find each other. Unemployed people will register and upload their CV to the web-site then search for a suitable job position posted by partner companies. Companies looking at CV's uploaded to the web-site will invite perspective employers to the interview and sign a contract. The advantage of the web-site is simplifying the process of hiring (job description will be posted on web-site so, they do not have to provide job description each person calling to the company), and highly qualified specialists will be hired by companies. In case of, expiring the contract date (contract which is signed by employee and company) CV's uploaded to our web-site which help to apply easily to a new job position.

- Companies role: post jobs, calling to the interview suitable applicants who showed interest to this position.

- Unemployed people: upload own CV and look for a job position, apply to the suitable job then wait for an invitation to the interview.
